KEN THERRIEN, under penalty of perjury of the laws of the State of Washington, states as follows:

I am the attorney for Teresa Ledesma the defendant herein. On December 7, 2012 Magistrate Judge James Hutton imposed conditions of release allowing Ms. Lesdema to remain out of custody during the pendency of her case. Ms. Lesdema was released from custody on cause number 12-1-6053-13 EFS after posting a ($10,000.00) Ten-Thousand Dollar percentage bond. It was anticipated that Immigration would

1 require an additional bond to assure Ms. Ledesma's compliance with any
2 immigration issues she had pending.

3 On December 12, 2012 an emergency hearing was held before
4 Magistrate Judge James Hutton for the issuance of a stay preventing
5 Immigration Authorities from deporting Ms. Ledesma and requesting
6 her return to the Eastern District of Washington. At the hearing counsel
7 had been advised by Magistrate Judge Hutton that Ms. Ledesma had 8 already been deported to Mexico earlier that very same morning.
9

10 Since Ms. Ledesma is, at this time, no longer subject to the 11 jurisdiction of this court counsel requests that he be allowed to withdraw
12 from Ms. Ledesma's case and be excused from all further proceedings.
